INVITATION FOR BIDS: SALE OF EXCESS/SURPLUS PROPERTYTERMS OF SALE

As a guarantee of good faith, each bid must be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check, or money order made payable to the City of Midway (the "City") in an amount no less than five percent (5%) of the total amount bid. Cash not accepted. Bids under $225,000 will not be considered.

The good faith deposit of all unsuccessful bidders will be returned by mail as soon as possible after bids have been opened and the property has been awarded. The deposits of all bidders will be returned if all bids are rejected.

The City will retain and apply the successful bidder's good faith deposit to the balance of the purchase price. The successful bidder must pay the balance of the purchase price at the time of delivery of the deed. Payment of the balance due must be in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, or money order made payable to the City of Midway. The successful bidder's good faith deposit will be forfeited to the City of Midway as liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to purchase the property after the property has been awarded.

Prior to submitting a bid, prospective bidders are responsible for inspecting and investigating this real estate to determine pertinent factors such as access, zoning, easements, condition, etc. No refund or adjustment will be made because the property fails to meet standards of quality or conditions. Failure to inspect the property will not be grounds for any claim for relief.

Bidders and their representative shall have the right to enter upon the property to conduct reasonable surveys, non-invasive examinations, and inspections prior to the closing, provided however, that the discovery of any objectionable condition on or with respect to the property shall not give the bidder any right to require the City to take any corrective action with respect to such condition. The City shall not be liable for any damage, liability, loss, cost, or expense resulting from the examinations and inspections. In the exercise of its rights pursuant to this paragraph, the bidder shall not interfere with the conduct of the City's activities on or with respect to the property and shall give the City reasonable advance notice of any surveys, non-invasive examinations, and inspections the bidder intends to conduct. Such notice shall contain the date and time the bidder intends to conduct such activities and a description of the nature of the activities. The City shall be entitled to have representatives present throughout such activities. The City may require proof of insurance before any survey or non-invasive examination of the property is conducted.

Possession of the property will be given upon payment in full of the purchase price and delivery of the deed. The property shall be conveyed to the successful bidder on the closing date. The sale will be on an AS-IS/ WHERE-IS BASIS.

A good marketable title to the property will be conveyed by deed containing covenant of special warranty, unless specifically provided otherwise, subject to existing laws and regulations regarding use of the property.

After the full consideration is received for the property, the deed of conveyance will be recorded and the original deed will be provided to the successful bidder.

The successful bidder or his successor in title will be responsible for payment of a taxes due on the property after delivery of the deed.
